

“Founders of The Emertons” by Jim Emerton

The following birds bred by myself are top key birds in the strain (71 to 879 miles). Note the type, feather quality and condition.

No 1: Stock Cock “Dark Destiny”, (A.K.A The “Daddy”) GB79.

Bred from a brother and sister mating i.e. “Iron Hen” and “Iron Man” (uncrossed Descamp Van Hasten Stichelbaut based)

No 2: “The Dutchman” GB80

Flew single up from Holland. Son of “Dark Destiny” and “Daughter of Darkness”. Sire of “Sister Damien” Dam of “Mystical Queen”.

No 3: "Dreadnought" DKCL Cock GB81

From Louella, Direct son of Descamp Van Hasten Stichelbauds that bred "Dorothy's Courage" and many others in the family.

No 4: "Dots Delight" Hen GB81

1st open York's Middle Route Melun 408 miles, North East Wind. Velocity 1208 ypm in 1984. Bred from "Brother Dark Destiny" and a sister to "Diabolos" (from No 1 pair).

The above 4 birds, line and inbred are key genes in the Emerton Strain in 2009. Aren't they lovely?
